Research Report on China ' s Mobile Phone Camera Modules from 2006 to 2007 内容介绍 :

1. Abstract of managing staff
 - 1.1. Research background
 - 1.2. Research content
 - 1.3. Research methodology
2. Definition of mobile phone camera modules
 - 2.1. Definition
 - 2.2. Technology component
3. Market development
 - 3.1. Market scale and analysis on trend
 - 3.1.1. Production of parts and components
 - 3.1.2. Analysis on trend of the industry
 - 3.1.3. Analysis on market scale and trend
4. Analysis on developing strategies of guiding enterprises
 - 4.1. Samsung electronics
 - 4.1.1. Technology capacity
 - 4.1.2. Resources
 - 4.1.3. Operation and annual output
 - 4.1.4. Developing strategy
 - 4.1.5. Cooperation
 - 4.2. Mitsubishi electrics
 - 4.2.1. Technology capacity
 - 4.2.2. Operation and annual output
 - 4.2.3. Cooperation
 - 4.3. Panasonic
 - 4.3.1. Technology capacity
 - 4.3.2. Resources
 - 4.3.3. Operation and annual output
 - 4.3.4. Developing strategy

4.3.5. Cooperation

4.4. Sony

4.4.1. Technology capacity

4.4.2. Resources

4.4.3. Operation and annual output

4.4.4. Developing strategy

4.4.5. Cooperation

4.5. Sharp

4.5.1. Technology capacity

4.5.2. Resources

4.5.3. Operation and annual output

4.5.4. Developing strategy

4.5.5. Cooperation

4.6. Toshiba

4.6.1. Technology capacity

4.6.2. Resources

4.6.3. Operation and annual output

4.6.4. Cooperation

4.7. Sanyo

4.7.1. Technology capacity

4.7.2. Resources

4.7.3. Operation and annual output

4.7.4. Developing strategy

4.7.5. Cooperation

4.8. Conexant

4.8.1. Technology capacity

4.8.2. Resources

4.8.3. Operation and annual output

4.8.4. Cooperation

4.9. OMNIVISION TECHNOLOGIES

4.9.1. Technology capacity

4.9.2. Resources

- 4.9.3. Operation and annual output
- 4.9.4. Developing strategy
- 4.9.5. Cooperation
- 4.10. Pixart
 - 4.10.1. Technology capacity
 - 4.10.2. Operation and annual output
 - 4.10.3. Developing strategy
 - 4.10.4. Cooperation
- 4.11. IC MEDIA
 - 4.11.1. Technology capacity
 - 4.11.2. Resources
 - 4.11.3. Operation and annual output
 - 4.11.4. Developing strategy
 - 4.11.5. Cooperation
- 4.12. TASC
 - 4.12.1. Technology capacity
 - 4.12.2. Operation and annual output
 - 4.12.3. Developing strategy
 - 4.12.4. Cooperation
- 5. Comparison of technology and market trend of CCD and COMS
 - 5.1. Comparative analysis on CCD and CMOS
 - 5.1.1. CCD technology
 - 5.1.2. CMOS technology
 - 5.1.3. Differences
 - 5.2. Analysis on market trend of CCD and CMOS
 - 5.2.1. Analysis on market development of CCD
 - 5.2.2. Analysis on market development of CMOS
 - 5.2.3. Status quo and prediction of CCD/CMOS
 - 5.2.4. Major manufacturers of CCD/CMOS
- 6. Comparative analysis on global suppliers
 - 6.1. Comparative analysis on resources
 - 6.2. Comparative analysis on prices

6.3. Comparative analysis on production capacity

7. Situation of domestic adoption

7.1. Bird

7.1.1. Annual output

7.1.2. Suppliers

7.2. Konka

7.2.1. Annual output

7.2.2. Suppliers

7.3. Kejian

7.3.1. Annual output

7.3.2. Suppliers

8. Analysis on future elements impacting the development

8.1. Lens

8.2. Micro sensor

8.2.1. Quality of photos and shot restriction

8.2.2. Improvement in CMOS micro sensors

9. Prediction of demand for camera modules in the future

9.1. Demand in

9.2. Changes of demand and sales from 2003 to

10. Conclusion and suggestion

10.1. Industrial trend

10.2. Popularity of mobile phones provides the camera module industry with vast room for development

10.3. In mainland China, the development prospect is good

10.4. Taiwan dominates the global market of mobile phone camera module market

10.5. Japan dominates CCD micro sensors, America and Korea control CMOS micro sensors

10.6. With the development of 3G network, mobile phone camera module industry faces both challenge and opportunity
